GENERAL DEBATE ENDS. sideration Tomorrow.

General debate on the administration oldiers' and . sailors' insurance bill ended yesterday, and the measure will be up for detailed consideration tomorrow. Opponents of the bill yesterday assailed the measure, led by Representative Key of Ohio and Steenerson of Minnesota. They maintained the insurance bill will create a large number of special jobs, and will also cause a flood of special pension legislation by future Congresses to equalize the pro-posed compensation with the pensions now allowed to old soldiers by existing Assignment of Artillery Officers to

Lost Territory Regained.

"In the Hermada sector our troops by a bold stroke regained the territory previously taken by the Italians in the eleventh battle of the Isonzo. The enemy can no longer boast of having gained a yard of ground. In vain the enemy, exasperated, attempted by mad thrusts to reconquer what he had lost. The attacks were crushed by artillery and hand grenades. At this point up to the present 160 officers and 6,300 men have been taken prisoner.

CHICAGO, September 8.—State's Attorney Hoyne today began an investigation to learn who would benefit by the fortune left by Mrs. Maude A. King, who was mysteriously killed at Concord. N. C., August 29.

A North Carolina inquest found that Mrs. King's death was accidental. Coroner Hoffman of Chicago recently took the body from the vault here and after an examination asserted that the builet wound could not have been self-inflicted.

Paul Robinson of Muskogee, Okla., and William Robinson of Morrison, Ill., brothers of Mrs. King, conferred with Coroner Hoffman. Their mother, Mrs. Anna L. Robinson of Asheville, N. C., was represented at the conference by Attorney P. M. McDuffie of Atlanta. They said that they would make every effort to learn just how Mrs. King met death.
